ment had refused to accept either of them.

The war office declined to give any information on the subject and it was declared that no official statement would be available before Premier Asquith himself made the announcement in the house of commons tonight.

It was persistently reported today that a number of senior officers of the cavalry brigade at the Curragh camp in Ireland had resigned and it was stated that the majority of the regimental officers of the mounted units there were determined to maintain their refusal to serve against the Unionists in Ulster.

Strong pressure was evident brought to bear on Sir John French to retain his post at the head of the army. He was summoned to an interview with Premier Asquith after the prime minister had seen King George. Subsequently the field marshal proceeded to Buckingham palace to confer with the king.

Bell System Voluntarily Relinquishes Control of Lines Covering Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Portland, Ore., March 26.—The so-called telephone trust, by which the Bell system dominates the lines of Washington, Oregon and Idaho, was dissolved without a fight yesterday, when a decree accepted by the telephone interests and consenting to the government's demand was entered in the federal court.

The decree adds another step in the peaceful re-organization of the so-called telephone trust and makes specific plans for the restoration of competitive conditions in the Pacific northwest. It ends the suit under the Sherman anti-trust law brought here last July by the attorney general.

In compliance with its terms, the Bell company will give up its holdings in the Northwestern Telephone company, with lines from Port Angeles, Wash., to Corvallis, Ore., and in the Interstate Telephone company, with lines from Spokane, Wash., to northern Idaho. The acquisition of these two long distance companies, the purchase of the Home Telephone company of Spokane and of exchanges competing with the Bell in Seattle, Tacoma and Bellingham, Wash., contributed to the alleged combination in restraint of trade, which led to the suit.

Concerning the Home company the decree offers a novel proposal and makes it possible for the people of Spokane to regulate their local telephone system.

The decree provides that the Bell company must sell its holdings in the Home company out if within three months the city of Spokane determines that it is in her interest to consolidate the two exchanges under the Bell's control, application may be made to the court for the necessary modification of today's decree.

The modification will be made, however, on condition that the Bell company open its local telephones in Spokane to the Interstate company, which operates long distance lines in to Idaho, giving the Inter-State access to all the Bell and the Home's subscribers in Spokane.

No plan is provided for the separation of the exchanges acquired by Seattle, Tacoma and Bellingham because of the fact they have become identified and committed with the Bell company's in those cities, but a plan of connections has been set forth in the decree designed to lead to sharper competitions. Patrons of the Northwestern company, the second long distance concern to be given up by the Bell shall have the right to communicate with the Bell patrons in those cities. The Home company at Portland is allowed access to the long distance lines of the Bell on the same terms as Bell patrons.
